YOUNG RUFFIAN BEATS TEACHER

Miss Weil Viciously Attacked by Thirteen - Year - Old Frank Rito, Who Rains Blows Upon Her Head with Ruler.

"I WANT TO MURDER HER."

Incorrigible Youth Swaggers and Brags, and Finally Offers to Play Craps with His School Teacher and the Other Pupils.

Frank Rito, a thirteen-year-old boy was arraigned in the Children's Court this morning charged with attacking and threatening to kill Miss Belle Weil, his teacher in Public School No. 168, at One Hundr d and Fifth street and First evenue. The youth was as incorrigible in court as in school, and showed no signs of repentance.

The Magistrate thought a sojourn in the Catholic Protectory would take some of the pugilistic inclinations out of the boy and committed him accordingly.

For two years his attendance at school has been irregular. It was impossible to keep him there long enough, for he would play truant unless taken to the room each day by his mother or sister. Last Monday he was placed by a truan officer in Miss Well's room,

When the teacher gave him a book he threw it across the room and ran out of the door. The next day he was brought in by his sister, and he made school work impossible by talking out loud and throwing books at the pupils. The boy came late yesterday, and when asked for an explanation said: "Oh! it's style to be late. I don't do things like these kids of yours. I'm the only man in the school. Do you think I'm going to take orders from a wo-

He then took some dice from his pocket and invited the teacher and pupils to "shoot craps" with him. Miss Weil ordered him to go to the principal. "Do you think I'm going with any kid like that!" he yelled, pointing to the monitor.

With an oath he seized a long ruler from the teacher's desk and struck her over the head with it. Blow after blow he rained on Miss Well's head and
